SCOTTTDALE, Sept. 26.—Secretary W. J. Graef of the local Y. M. C. A. received word yesterday that Elmer Conner of Springfield, O., has accepted the position of physical director in the Scottsdale association, and will be here on September 30, ready to take up his new work. The association has been after a capable man for several weeks to take the place of Lloyd Evans, who resigned in order to return to his home at Frostburg, Md., to enter a business partnership with his father. The association had several men in view and took Mr. Conner, who has had eight years experience in class work in the big association at Springfield, and gives special aid promise of being the man needed here.

The secretary will have some later eating announcements to make regarding the physical department's work in the near future. The fall activity of the association has been commenced and the night school work will be soon under way. The night school, which has been successfully operated for two years, will have a rally on the evening of October 8, when all interested in the matter are invited to be present and meet the instructors. The classes will be conducted two evenings each week. In mechanical drawing first and second year, G. F. Hodges, draftsman from the H. C. Fickel Coke Company, will be the instructor the class meeting on Monday and Tuesday evenings. In the third year the selection of an instructor is now pending. The class meeting Tuesday and Friday evenings. In the course in aluminum mining P. P. Glenn, a member of the Board of State Examiners is the instructor, the classes meeting on two evenings of the week. In English for foreign men M. E. Pitts is the instructor, the class to be organized on October 21, at 7:30 P. M. at the Y. M. C. A. rooms. A mining institute is scheduled for Saturday, October 17, and once a month thereafter until March, 1937. These institutes have for their purpose the increasing and diffusing of knowledge relating to coal mining, the promotion of good fellowship among the men related to the mining industry and the social betterment of the mining community.

Last Sunday of the Year.

Tomorrow is the last Sunday of the conference year in the Methodist Episcopal churches of this conference. At the First Methodist Episcopal church Rev. W. C. Weaver, the pastor, will preach in the morning and evening, and the other regular services will be held. Rev. Archibald Auld will preach tomorrow at the Wesley Chapel M. E. church at 10:30 A. M. and at the Alverton church at 7:30 P. M.

Fire in the Country.

The people of the country live in constant fear that careless people or accidents will start a fire, which under the parched condition of every thing would sweep over unlimited territory. On Wednesday a meadow of Frank Durstine near the Chapel was set on fire and was extinguished only after a desperate battle with the flames, and the fortunate fact that no house was going at the time. In spite of everything the fire managed to cross the road, although normally a road or even ploughed furrow ought to stop it. In town the utmost safeguard is being noticed every day in people gathering leaves and burning them or burning rubbish of all kinds near buildings apparently unconscious that they may start fires that might consume half of the town.

Candidate for Superintendent.

Rev. W. C. Weaver, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church, will be a candidate for the place of district superintendent, or what was known as presiding elder of the McKeesport district of the Pittsburgh conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, when conference meets at Vandergrift next week. The term of Rev. J. F. Murray expires by limitation. Among other candidates mentioned are Rev. A. J. Ashe of Conneltsville, and Rev. L. R. Jones of Homestead. Dr. O. H. Hess is the lay delegate from Scottsdale. Rev. C. L. Cartwright of Bradenton, former pastor at Scottsdale, will deliver the address of welcome to the conference. He will be accompanied by five of the official board who will ask for his return according to unanimous vote of the board.

Dan Cupid Was Busy.

Dan Cupid was busy with Scottsdale people at Youngstown, O., this week when, according to reports here, Miss Florence Wilson and Samuel Howard two popular and prominent young people of this place, were wed on Tuesday. The bride is a daughter of H. C. Wilson, former editor and proprietor of the Observer, and a talented young musician, while the groom is a mason and an estimable young man, both having many friends who give their best wishes for a long and happy married life.

In the Justice's Court.
George Swift was arrested last evening on a serious charge preferred by Miss Clara L. Clark of Dover and was given a hearing before Judge J. C. Brownfield. He was held under bail in the sum of $700. In the same court the charge of assault and battery preferred this week against Samuel Holmby by his wife was withdrawn and Holmby was released from jail at Uniontown.

Of a Personal Nature.
Mrs. John Kitchgaw and daughter Miss Margaret Miss Ridenour and Miss Wenneiland went to Pittsburg this morning.

Allan Porter is on the R. F. D. route today, taking the place of the regular carrier, George L. Graft who is at a picnic.

The Ladies' 500 Club went to Mr. Pleasant yesterday as the guests of Mrs. Harry Lightcap.

Attorney.

HARDSHIPS OF PUPILS CITED.

Lee Smith, Appointed Inspector in Case, Files Report and Shows Why Oakdale School Should Be Opened to Children of District.

UNIONTOWN, Sept. 26.—Attorney Lee Smith appointed inspector to report upon the action of the Lower Tyrone School Board in closing Oakdale school filed his report yesterday and gives it as his opinion that the school should be opened. The action of the board in closing the school is shown by the fact that the school is in a building which is not suitable for the purpose and the children are suffering from the hardships of the situation.

Both the Quaker and the Presbyterian churches have a sufficiently large number of pupils to run a school. More pupils should be admitted into the school. The school is in a building which is not suitable for the purpose and the children are suffering from the hardships of the situation.

Mr. Smith then recites that the law of 1897 provides that the school board may provide transportation where a school has been closed for small attendance and the law is not complete to travel a great distance to another building. The action of the school board upon motion of J. C. Cunningham to provide such transportation is then cited. The inspector then takes up the subject of the action of the board of June 1, when the school of O. P. M. Nicol was closed. Mr. Smith then recites that the law of 1897 provides that the school board may provide transportation where a school has been closed for small attendance and the law is not complete to travel a great distance to another building.
